

UNCLE SAM STANDS AGAINST EUROPE

NO FOREIGN POWER TOLERATED IN AMERICA.

The Davis Resolution Reported to the Senate and Sent to the Calendar—Committee Was Not Unanimous—Text of The Resolution—Other Washington News.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Two opposing phases of the Monroe doctrine were present in the senate Monday—one from the committee on foreign relations, favoring a strong reaffirmation of the doctrine, and another from Mr. Sewell (N. J.), urging that the doctrine had been carried so far beyond its scope as to threaten dangerous consequences.

Mr. Davis (Minn.) presented the committee report as soon as the routine proceedings were disposed of.

Concurrent resolution relative to the assertion and enforcement of the Monroe doctrine:

Resolved, by the senate, the house of representatives concurring, That whereas President Monroe in his message to congress of Dec. 2, Anno Domini 1823, deemed it proper to assert as a principle in which the rights and interests of the United States are involved that the American continents, by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and maintained, were thenceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European power.

Whereas, President Monroe further declared in that message that the United States would consider any attempt by the allied powers of Europe to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety; that with the existing colonies and dependencies of any European power we have not interfered and should not interfere; but that with the governments who have declared their independence and maintained it, whose independence we have on great consideration and on just principles acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or controlling in any other manner their destiny by any European power in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States; and further reiterated in that message that it is impossible that the allied powers should extend their political system to any portion of either continent without endangering our peace and happiness; and,

Whereas, The doctrine and policy so proclaimed by President Monroe have since been repeatedly asserted by the United States by executive declaration and action upon occasions and exigencies similar to the particular occasion and exigency which caused them to first be announced and have been ever since their promulgation, and now are the rightful policy of the United States. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the United States of America reaffirms and confirms the doctrines and principles promulgated by President Monroe in his message of Dec. 2, 1823, and declares that it will assert and maintain that doctrine and those principles, and will regard any infringement thereof, and particularly any attempt by any European power to take or acquire any new territory on the American continents or any islands adjacent thereto for any right of sovereignty or dominion in the same, in any case or instance as to which the United States shall deem such attempt to be dangerous to its peace or safety, by or through force, purchase, cession, occupation, pledge, colonization, protectorate or by control of the easement in canal or any other means of transit across the American isthmus, whether on unfounded pretension of right in cases of alleged boundary disputes, or under other unfounded pretensions, as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States and as an interposition which it would be impossible in any form for the United States to regard with indifference.

At Mr. Davis' request the resolution went to the senate calendar. Mr. Gray (dem., Del.) stated that he desired it understood that the favorable report was not unanimous. Mr. Wolcott (rep., Col.) gave notice that he would on Wednesday address the senate on Mr. Sewell's resolution placing limitations on the Monroe doctrine.

Mr. Sewell (rep., N. J.) addressed the senate on his resolution reciting that President Cleveland had extended the Monroe doctrine beyond its proper scope, and enunciating the principle that the doctrine was for the interest of the people of the United States and was not an obligation to aid and protect southern republics. The resolution recites that the president's course was premature and that the Monroe doctrine does not commit the United States to a protectorate of the southern countries. Mr. Sewell said the president's Venezuelan message presented questions of most serious import.

The senator, reading from the message, said the president clearly desired to present the contingency of war. Throughout the message and the letters of the secretary of state the determination was clear to make this construction of the doctrine absolutely final and conclusive, without reference to results.

The senator quoted from resolutions of congress in 1825 and speeches by Mr. Webster showing the exact purpose and original scope of the Monroe doctrine. In 1863 Senator Clayton of Delaware pointed out in the senate that the doctrine of Monroe was not addressed to foreign nations, but was a mere recommendation to Congress, which Congress declined at the time and had ever since declined to accept. The Congress sitting at the time of the Monroe message strongly opposed the doctrine. Henry Clay offered a modified resolution, but it could not pass. Lewis Cass referred to the doctrine as a dead letter. Mr. Sewell gave the position of John Quincy Adams, Jackson, Van Buren, and other statesmen on the doctrine, showing the constant and successful opposition to it. Taking up the Venezuelan question, Mr. Sewell pointed out that the president's position involved the most extreme and dangerous application of the doctrine thus far made. It was not based on the interests of the United States, but on the force exerted by a strong power against a weak one in South America. It clearly led to the assumption of a protectorate by the United States over Mexico and South American countries. It involved the necessity of our preparing ourselves with arms and ammunition to execute the duties and obligations of such a protectorate.

Venezuela had been in a state of constant turmoil and revolution for twenty-five years, said Mr. Sewell. These people of the southern republics were subject to internal discord and revolution. It behooved the United States to pause and consider well the extent of an obligation which made us the guardian of these turbulent countries. That they would give offense to foreign countries was undoubted.

Mr. Sewell said that he felt the circumstances of the moment had led to an extreme assertion of our position which would entail serious results if carried out by Congress. The first ebullitions of the popular excitement and the desire of some persons to indulge in cheap utterances based on supposed patriotism were not the best basis for intelligent and serious action. At the close of Mr. Sewell's speech, Mr. Daniel (dem., Va.) gave notice that he would address the Senate on the subject next Thursday.

Mr. Platt (rep., Conn.) asked Mr. Jones (dem., Ark.) when a vote on the pending bond bill would be had. Mr. Jones said he was unable to state, as there were several speeches yet to be heard. Mr. Platt thought there should be a time set for a vote. Mr. Jones said that the original bond bill was now a silver measure, and its friends would take due time to present its merits and would then fix a time for a vote.

Mr. Pugh (dem., Ala.) sought to secure a vote on his resolution that government obligations should be paid in silver as well as gold. The persistent purpose of the present administration, he said, was to commit the government to paying all outstanding coin bonds in gold. The bond syndicate to-day depends upon the veto power of the president to carry out its purposes. Mr. Hill (dem., N. Y.) said he desired to speak on this resolution and asked that the resolution go over. This was finally agreed to.

Mr. Call (dem., Fla.) secured leave to have printed the "constitution of the new republic of Cuba." Mr. Baker (rep., Kan.) offered an amendment to the pending silver-bond bill providing that coinage "shall be restricted to the product of the United States mines." At 4:25 p. m. the senate adjourned until to-day.

IN THE HOUSE.

Military Academy Appropriation Bill Meets Little Opposition.

Washington, Jan. 21.—In the house Monday the president's message in reply to the resolution of the house calling upon him for information as to what steps, if any, had been taken in relation to the Bayard speeches at Boston, England, and Edinburgh, Scotland, was read. The message and correspondence were referred to the committee on foreign relations.

The house then went into committee of the whole (Mr. Payne of N. Y. in the chair) for the consideration of the military academy appropriation bill. The total amount appropriated was $449,547, which was $171,422 less than the estimates and $14,714 less than the sum appropriated for the current fiscal year. The bill provoked little debate and was passed without substantial amendment.

Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio presented a joint resolution directing the secretary of the treasury to destroy all income tax returns and papers relative thereto in the possession of the treasury department, and it was passed. Then, at 2:45 o'clock, the house adjourned.

WAIT FOR UTAH SENATORS.

Vote on the Bond Bill Delayed Until Their Arrival.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Senator Jones of Nevada has not yet given any intimation as to what position he might finally take upon the house revenue tariff bill, now before the finance committee. The committee is a tie without his vote, and as nothing can be done without his consent, Chairman Morrill decided not to call a meeting of the committee for today, notwithstanding that it is the committee's regular meeting day. The probabilities are that the tariff bill will remain in committee until after the silver substitute for the bond bill shall be disposed of.

It is asserted that it is the purpose of the supporters of the bond bill to delay a vote until the Utah senators shall arrive. They say their reason for pressing this policy is the desire to secure as large a majority as possible and assert that, as the senate is now composed, they have a majority of from three to five votes.

PRESIDENT TO ACT IN CUBA'S BEHALF

ENCOURAGEMENT TO BE GIVEN TO INSURGENTS.

Senator McMillan Is Authority for The Statement That Their Recognition By the United States Is Assured—Havana's Farewell To Campos—Salt Mines Destroyed By Spaniards.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 21.—Congressman Benton McMillin reached the city last night from Washington, and in an interview concerning Cuban affairs he said that he had good grounds for the statement that President Cleveland, in a few days, will send a message to congress recognizing the Cubans as belligerents. Mr. McMillin says he is satisfied this will be done, and that the rumors connecting Great Britain with the purchase of Cuba are bringing matters to a crisis. Mr. McMillin spoke with positiveness in regard to the early recognition of the revolutionists.

DISCUSS THE QUESTION.

Senators Meet to Consider the Subject of Recognition.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Senators Sherman, Morgan and Lodge, who constitute the subcommittee on Cuban affairs of the committee on foreign relations, met yesterday for consultation upon the question of recognizing the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents. The meeting was strictly private, and nothing was given out concerning it.

There is reason for believing that the subcommittee has virtually agreed upon a resolution recommending the recognition of the belligerency of the Cubans and that a report to that effect will be made to the full committee tomorrow. It is possible that the resolution may only go to the extent of expressing sympathy for the Cuban cause, and the subcommittee is trying to keep its proceedings a close secret.

There has never been any doubt on the part of a majority of the members as to the propriety of some recognition of the Cuban movement for freedom, the only question being as to the wisdom of taking steps at this time in that direction. There is a feeling in the committee, however, that congress is far behind the sentiment of the country on this question, and that the time is ripe for action.

FAREWELL TO CAMPOS.

Citizens of Havana Honor the Retiring Captain-General.

Havana, Jan. 21.—General Martinez de Campos was accorded a splendid and effective farewell demonstration upon the occasion of his departure from Havana for Spain. At 3 o'clock he proceeded to the wharf, surrounded by a vast crowd. The troops formed an escort and the Spanish national hymn was taken up by the multitude, who varied it with acclamations for Campos.

The general went on board a yacht which took him to the Spanish warship Alfonso Doce, lying in the harbor. The harbor presented a scene of great animation, being crowded with all manner of craft, with gay colors flying, the yellow flag of Spain giving the predominant tinge to the effect. A special steamer carried members of the chamber of commerce and the produce exchange, and the private yachts showed their decks gay with attire of many ladies. General Marin and the five members of his family were on one of the yachts which escorted the Alfonso Doce down the harbor. There was quite a high sea on, which, however, did not detract from the warmth of the ovation. The wharf was black with people as the war vessel floated past and all shouted vivas for Campos.

The general's sons, his aids, chief of staff, and General Arderius, his brother-in-law and second in command, accompanied him.

According to advices received here from the front, Antonio Maceo has passed eastward south of Alquizar, in the Province of Havana, pushing on for Guira, Melena and Quivican, while Maximo Gomez is said to have pushed on eastward to the borders of the Provinces of Havana and Matanzas, apparently going in the direction of the swamp land of the Grand Cienaga Occidental de Zapata.

Colonel Molina has notified the authorities that the insurgent bands commanded by Nunez, Capote, Alvarez, and Collazo, numbering 1,500 men, are marching in the direction of Guines. The Colonel left Bolondron in the direction of Alfonso XII, and had a skirmish with the insurgents, who left ten killed on the field, and retired with their wounded. The troops captured three prisoners and six Remington rifles, and the enemy retreated into the swamp land south of Alfonso XII, where it is believed, from the present outlook and movements eastward of the insurgents, the enemy intends to await the arrival of the re-enforcements coming west under Jose Maceo and Rabi. If all these reports are correct, the vicinity of Havana should now be pretty well clear of any large force of insurgents, and the latter must be mustering in force south of Matanzas.

A dispatch from Manzanillo, in the Province of Santiago de Cuba, says that Colonel Sandoval, operating along the coast with a Spanish column, has destroyed the salt mines in that vicinity which served as a depot and lookout for the insurgents.

A SPANISH GUNBOAT SHOOTS AT J. BULL

MAN-OF-WAR CHASES AN ENGLISH STEAMER.

Blank Shot Discharged Across the Bows of the Tafia on Account of Her Refusal to Stop—Captain Will Not Make Complaint—Thinks the Fault His Own.

Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—The British steamer Tafia, Captain Orchard, which arrived here yesterday with a cargo of iron ore, seven days from St. Jago, reports being fired on by a Spanish gunboat. The Tafia was about twenty miles east of Kiquire and about three miles from the shore when the gunboat was seen in pursuit. She ran up signals, and the Tafia, not understanding them, proceeded under full steam. The gunboat gave chase, and when about 100 yards from the British boat sent a blank shot across her bows. The captain immediately ran up the British ensign, at the sight of which, he says, the Spaniard turned tail and steamed away. Captain Orchard says he will not report the matter to the English consul, as he was most likely at fault. He did not make out the name of the gunboat, but thinks it one of five new ones recently purchased by Spain.

PREPARING FOR POPULISTS.

Arrangements About Completed for the Convention at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 21.—The members of the executive committee of the Populist national committee and the convention of the Business Men's league of St. Louis have completed all details for the July convention, and executed a contract whereby the Populists will be given the use of the hall in the Exposition building now being prepared for the Republican national convention. This hall, it is expected, will seat from 12,000 to 15,000 people, when all arrangements are completed. Chairman Taubeneck and the other members of the special committee appointed to go to Washington and confer next Wednesday with the Bimetallie league as to the advisability of their holding their convention in St. Louis at the same time the Populists are in session are now on their way there.

Two Important Meetings.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Over six billions of capital are represented in the two conventions of manufacturers that opened their sessions in Chicago this morning. The principal one is the National Association of Manufacturers, at Central Music Hall, at 10 o'clock. The other association is the textile manufacturers', which will act in harmony with, and, in fact, be a part of, the National Manufacturers' association. The meetings of the manufacturing interests in this city on the eve of a national campaign is significant, and their action will be looked forward to with a great deal of interest.

Both of these associations are non-partisan and are convened to further the interests of the manufacturers. The National Association of Manufacturers represents all the various lines of manufacturing in the country, while the Textile association represents the textile manufacturers of the West and South.

Favor an Immigration Bill.

Washington, Jan. 21.—A concerted effort is being made throughout the country to secure petitions to individual congressmen from their constituents pleading for the passage of the immigration bill offered in the house by William A. Stone, of Pennsylvania. Yesterday Congressman Perkins, of Iowa, received and presented to the house such a petition signed by thirty-six citizens of Sioux City, Iowa, and Congressman Minor, of Wisconsin, received such a petition signed by ninety citizens of Stevens Point, Wis.

Against Lined Oil Trust.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—Judge Baker, of the United States district court, Monday handed down a decision in the National Lined Oil trust case, in which the deed of the trust to the National Lined Oil company is upheld, but the trust is held to be illegal, the company an illegal organization and a monopoly, and only capable of holding property until suit is filed against it by the proper persons. The attorney general of Illinois has just filed the suit.

Three Millions for Charity.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 21.—The will of Mrs. Anna R. Aspinwall of this city, who died recently in Edinburgh, Scotland, was filed in the county court yesterday. With the exception of a few paintings donated to the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia, she bequeaths her entire fortune, estimated at $3,000,000, to the Hospital of the Protestant Episcopal church, Philadelphia. The will will be contested by a niece of the deceased, Miss Dellafield, of this city.

Choynski Defeats Hall.

Maspeth, L. I., Jan. 21.—Joe Choynski won a sensational fight with Australian Jim Hall last night at the Empire Athletic club arena, knocking his opponent out in the thirteenth round. Hall was helpless after being counted out, and had to be carried to his carriage, but it is not thought his injuries are of a nature that will be lasting.

THIRTY-FIVE MEN DIED ROASTED HERSELF

Explosion At New Haven Causes Loss of Life.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 21.—There has been a big explosion at the foot of Orange street on Crown street and thirty-five men have been killed thereby.

TEXTILE MANUFACTURES.

Important Meeting of Woolen and Cotton Interests of West and South.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—The textile manufacturers convened at the Palmer house at noon to-day. The association is made up of the textile manufacturers of the west and south, and one of the principal features of the meeting will be to bring about a cheaper freight rate, so that the manufacturer can reach

GEORGE S. BOWEN.

President Textile Manufacturers Ass'n. Chicago from the south without sending his goods by the way of New York, as is the case at present. The association is the outgrowth of the Woolen Manufacturers' association, organized in New York in 1868. An exposition was held in Chicago that year, and since has held several conventions. It is now known as the Textile Manufacturers' Association of the West and South. During the past four or five years no meetings have been held. The present depression in business is the prime reason for the present meeting.

In the convention will be delegates representing 2,000,000 spindles, $40,000,000 capital, 866 sets of wool cards, 8,439 looms, and 8,630 knitting machines. The association is in accord with the National Association of Manufacturers, and will attend that convention in a body when possible.

FREE SILVER TICKET.

President of the Bimetallie League States Its Position.

Washington, Jan. 21.—A. J. Warner, president of the Bimetallie league, who is here preparing for the conference of silver leaders which is to occur in Washington this week, makes no concealment of the intention to call a national convention for the nomination of a presidential candidate upon a free coinage platform, pure and simple. He said: "We want to place the issue squarely before the people of this country, entirely disentangled from tariff, Monroe doctrine, civil service or any other question. The people have wanted to get at this question for years, and there is only one way to give them a chance and that is to make a simple platform in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio probably of 16 to 1, declaring incidentally upon other questions relative to currency and finance, but omitting any other confusing questions."

'WILL MEET WAR WITH WAR.

New Governor-General of Cuba Outlines His Policy.

Havana, Cuba, Jan. 21.—The alleged program of General Weyler, the new governor-general of Cuba, has been cabled from Spain. The main points of it are that he will not follow General Campos' policy; that politically he will be an opportunist; that war will be answered with war; that he will be inexorable towards spies and rebel sympathizers, but lenient towards those surrendering under arms; that he will endeavor to establish an efficient blockade to prevent the landing of arms and ammunition from the United States, and that he will not be sanguinary, but will deal justly. The same dispatch reports that 17,000 men will be sent from Spain, beginning in February, with two batteries of mountain artillery.

Cannon Is for More Economy.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The tendency toward increase in the expense of the United States courts is attacked by Chairman Cannon of the appropriation committee in the report made Monday on the urgent deficiency bill, which carries $3,242,582 for these courts. He calls attention to the growth of expenses of more than 100 per cent from 1835 to 1896. Fees for United States commissioners, it is stated, have increased from $127,150 for the fiscal year 1890 to $340,000 for the current year, and witness fees from $900,000 to $1,500,000.

Militia Not Called Out.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The story that Secretary Lamont has called on the southern militia to resist the reported British purchase and occupancy of Cuba is positively denied at the war department.

ROASTED HERSELF TO AVOID DEATH

MRS. NICHOLS' HORRIBLE MANNER OF SUICIDE.

Thought a Sore On her Back Was a Cancer That Would Kill Her. So She Soaked Her Clothes in Kerosene Oil and Then Applied a Match.

Manawa, Wis., Jan. 21.—[Special] Miss Polly Nichols, aged sixty-two years, committed suicide this morning in a horrible manner. She saturated her clothing with kerosene and then touched a match to it. She had an idea that a sore on her back was cancer, and would kill her.

Fire at Elkhorn.

Elkhorn, Wis., Jan. 21.—[Special]—The large barns on the farm of Mrs. F. H. Eames, six miles east of here, in the town of La Fayette, were burned last night. Twenty-one cows, nine head of young stock, four horses, hay, grain, wagons, harness and all machinery belonging to the farm were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will reach about $5,000, partly insured.

Beer War at Racine.

Racine, Wis., Jan. 21.—[Special]—There is a lively beer war on here. All of the big breweries of Milwaukee, Chicago and St. Louis have sent agents here, and are selling beer at three dollars per barrel in order to knock out the Klinkert brewery of this city. Beer can be had at three glasses for five cents.

TO PRESENT EVIDENCE.

Venezuelan Commission Addresses Both Governments.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The Venezuelan commission has invited the governments of Great Britain and of Venezuela to submit to it all of the evidence in their possession to further the work of the commission, to be presented before it by attorneys, and all of this with the reservation that such representation and appearance shall not be deemed an abandonment of any rights or position heretofore assumed. It has done this in order that the proceedings of the commission may not be said to be ex parte, that the truth may appear, and that time may be saved in the inquiry with which the commission is charged.

It cannot be said that the commission is confident of a favorable response from both parties to the boundary controversy, although the courteous terms in which the suggestion is couched and the wide latitude of reservation permitted each party that may respond in the open spirit which characterizes the invitation leads to the natural hope that it will be accepted.

Meanwhile, the commission will proceed on the original line of inquiry, which promises to be a slow and difficult task, trusting to the abridgment of the proceedings later on by the production of evidence by both parties and the appearance of attorneys, when the proceeding may at once take on the form of a judicial trial, and the attainment of a conclusion be correspondingly hastened.

BAYARD'S REPLY.

Explanation of His Alleged Anti-American Speeches.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The president Monday made answer to the house resolution calling for information as to Ambassador Bayard's speeches at Edinburgh, Scotland, and Boston, England. Mr. Bayard calls attention to the fact that the Edinburgh address was delivered by invitation before a society purely literary and scientific in character; that no political canvass was pending or approaching in Great Britain at the time; that the address consisted of his personal opinions upon governmental institutions in general, and that there are precedents, as in the case of his predecessor, Mr. Lowell, for an ambassador of the United States delivering an address upon such conditions. Mr. Bayard adds that in the report of the Boston address there are obvious errors, but as he spoke without preparation, he has nothing by which to make comparisons or to show in just what those errors consisted.

KILLED HIS BABY.

Fretful Child Drives a Father to Mardorous Frenzy.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—A revolting and inhuman crime is reported from the little town of Brook, Newton county, where William Toolles crushed the life out of his infant child. The babe had been sick and fretful for several days, and the parents had lost considerable sleep, the father being greatly disturbed by it. In a fit of anger Sunday he took the child from its cradle, deliberately placed its head between his knees and crushed it to death. The mother rushed screaming in terror from the house, and when the neighbors arrived the child was dead. Feeling is running high in the county, and the jail at Kentland, where Toolles is confined, is being heavily guarded.

Byrnes Is Sergeant-at-Arms.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 21.—Timothy M. Byrnes of Minneapolis was elected sergeant-at-arms of the national republican convention by the sub-committee of the national committee yesterday.

MILTON PASTOR GOT A VERY HARD FALL

REV. MR. WALKER INJURED IN A PAINFUL WAY.

His Hip Was Fractured and as He Is Eighty-Six Years of Age Chances For His Complete Recovery are Accounted Rather Slim—Other County News.

Milton, Jan. 21.—Rev. Mr. Walker met with a serious accident Sunday afternoon. In going out of his back door he fell and fractured his hip. As the reverend gentleman is eighty-six years of age, there is little hope of his making a complete recovery. Rev. E. L. Eaton, D. D., pastor of the Methodist church at Racine, will deliver the fourth lecture in the college course next Tuesday evening. His subject is "The Bible and the Stars." The reverend gentleman has a wide reputation as a platform speaker, and as this is one of his best efforts, he will be given a large hearing. Owing to illness in his family, Hon. L. B. Caswell was unable to give his lecture at college chapel last evening (Tuesday) as had been announced. Vincent and Haseenger and Fetherston Brothers shipped live stock last week. The new mill put up by the railroad company does not furnish a sufficient supply of water and it is necessary to run the steam pump. The live hog market has been booming lately and local buyers offer $3.75 for good stock. Walrath began filling his ice house Monday with Storr's lake ice. Du Lac Lodge expects to have work in the initiatory degree next Monday night.

SOME NEWS NOTES FROM FULTON

Sick Are About the Same—Fe some Gossip and Other Items.

Fulton, Jan. 21.—There is no improvement in William Fox's condition. Mrs. Fred Stewart has la grippe in a severe form. Miss Nellie Bentley has a fine new piano. Mr. Shaw, of Milton, was in town Tuesday, greeting many old acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dodge passed last Saturday in Evansville, visiting friends. Mr. Swader has a house and lot for sale; a very desirable home for some one. Claude Murwin has resumed his studies, after a week's absence by sickness. Miss Lucy Page made her friends, Misses Minnie and Nellie Hubble, a very pleasant visit last week. Fred Stewart and Jake Reaser are sorting tobacco in the corner basement. They have other crops to sort when this one is done. Will Saxby and Christian Ellefson skated down the river to Janesville Sunday, and returned Monday. There will be a corn social at the parsonage Friday evening, January 24. A cordial invitation is extended to all. A prayer meeting will be held at Mrs. Hattie Brown's this week Thursday night. As many as can should attend these meetings. Mrs. Helen Saxby and Mrs. Lon Dodge passed last Tuesday and Wednesday in Evansville, visiting Mrs. Mamie Brown, and returned very much pleased with the new city. James Clough and Mrs. Olive Clough passed last Friday in the town of Janesville with the Pearl family. The party at Martin Murvin's Friday night was attended by about forty friends of Stewart's, who had assembled to celebrate his birthday in a suitable manner. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was reported by all present. Alfred Clough went to Janesville, Tuesday on business. He has sold his store and will soon be located on a farm. Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Lynta a son, January 9. There is much rejoicing in consequence as this is the first grandson. Mr. Black, lately from Dakota, preached in the church Sunday evening. He was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Reid while here. L. H. Page is building a nice large ice house, a much needed convenience as all farmers would find if they would do likewise. A number of men with teams and axes worked last Thursday, getting wood for Mrs. Mary Oresaker. They secured a fine large pile, enough for her winter supply.

THE AFTON Y. P. S. C. E. ORGANIZE

Work Is Placed In The Hands of a Committee—Other News.

Afton, Jan. 21.—The work of the Baptist Y. P. S. C. E. for the ensuing six months, will be in the hands of the following committee, elected last Sunday evening: Lookout, Mary L. Bolte, W. J. Miller, Myrtle M. Eldredge; prayer meeting, U. G. Waite, C. D. Mayhew, Mable C. Throne; social, W. J. Miller, J. F. Bolte, Nellie McCrea; flower, Mary Scott, Anna L. Tank, Jennie Pankhurst; missionary, Alice Humphrey, David Throne, Hattie Miller; music, Virginia Scott, Myrtle M. Eldredge, A. R. Waite; relief, J. B. Humphrey, Frank Blunk, Lois A. Waite; temperance, Rose B. Blunk, Leonard McCrea, Mary J. Pankhurst. The congregations at the Baptist church are growing larger each Sunday and Pastor Mayhew is correspondingly happy. He is delivering some excellent discourses both morning and evening. As the result of a largely attended meeting held at the residence of J. B. Humphrey last Thursday evening, an organization to be known as the "Towed Line Fortnightly Club", was perfected and officers elected as follows: President, U. G. Waite; vice president, J. B. Humphrey; secretary, Hattie Edwards. The objects of the new society are of a literary character and will embody the study of various American authors, a discussion of current topics and the presentation of a general program, combining both musical and literary features. The C. & N. W. Ry. closed their night office here last Thursday. Those who are watching creamery affairs in this section, will be interested to know that the average price paid for milk at Afton creamery during the month of December was $1.04. The Modern Woodmen meet in regular session next Saturday evening and a general attendance of the members is desired. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey entertained Green county relatives last week. Frank Blunk has moved into the village occupying the Hills house.

DEATH'S DIRE WORK AT MAGNOLIA

Two Sisters Die Within a Few Days—Mrs. Pamela Howard Called Home.

Magnolia, Jan. 21.—Death has again entered our neighborhood and taken from our midst a loved one, Mrs. Pamela Howard, aged sixty-five years, of pneumonia, after a five days' illness. She leaves one son, G. H. Howard of this place, and one brother, David Andrew of Center, to mourn her loss. Only last Tuesday her sister, Mrs. Harriet Barrett, was laid away in the grave and Saturday morning, 18 inst., at 7 o'clock, she closed her eyes in death. In 1882 her husband Elder George Howard, died. Mrs. Howard was a consistent christian, one who showed her religion in every day life, of few words, but ever ready to do for those who needed her aid and care. The Advent church of which she was a member, has lost a faithful worker; her son, a loving mother, and the whole community a good neighbor. Funeral services were held at the Advent Chapel on the 20th, Rev. Byron Meigo of Arena, conducting the services. Nito Brown is gaining slowly. Mrs. Waddle is some better. Miss Belle Rice of Cookville, is spending a week in Magnolia.

Happenings at Rock River

Rock River, Jan. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Avery Vincent's baby is quite sick. Mrs. Charley Jones and children who have been visiting relatives here for the past month, returned to their home at Kozata, Iowa, last Friday. Miss Georgia Richardson spent Sunday with relatives at Newville. Mrs. Chauncey Hall, who has been very sick is some better. Sixty four friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brightman made them a surprise party last Wednesday night. Oysters were served and a general good time was had by all. Mrs. Henry Monroe is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Chauncey Grey. Mr. and Mrs. George Bassett of Lima, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives. The Y. P. S. C. E. of this place gave an interesting program last Sabbath night which was well attended from this place and several being present from Edgerton and Milton Junction. The following program was presented. Roll call by the secretary. Prayer by Elder W. C. Whitford. Responsive reading led by Carl Gray. Song by the juniors. Recitation, "The Fisherman," by Anna Crandall. Select reading, Lottie Gray. Song, "The Tramp's Prayer," by Katie Rose. A paper on "the Life of St. Matthew" read by Daisy Vincent. A talk on Endeavor work by Elder W. C. Whitford. Song, "The Song of the Whip-poor-will" by the junior girls. Oration, "Luther, the Reformer" by El Looftboro of Milton. A paper on the C. E. topic by C. D. Balch. Song by the juniors.

North Johnstown News.

North Johnstown, Jan. 21.—John Bennett, an old resident of this place, after a long and painful illness, passed to the other shore last Friday. The funeral was held at the home of his son Orville, Rev. Their officiating. He was buried in the North Johnstown cemetery. H. R. Osborn got notice yesterday that his pension had been re-issued. He had been notified that he would be dropped from the roll for a time at least. Mr. Pierce and son of Newville were at church on Sunday. The social at Mr. Killen's was well attended. The ladies did well and showed that they understood business when it comes to bidding.

Every Man Who Buys Them

Finds them perfectly satisfactory. We mean Carhart's corduroy pants at $3. Never does a button come off or ever do they rip, and these are two good things about a working pant, and then another is that they don't change color or fade. Frank H. Baack.

Black Dress Goods.

Twenty-five pieces of the newest weaves and designs in the Jacquard effects, at 50 cents a yard, both in the all wool and mohair. Without doubt these are the best values in black dress goods ever offered in Janesville. Ask to see the new black goods. Bort, Bailey & Co.

We Cleaned Up.

We have the newest and best line of tecks and bows on hand in the city. We cleaned out all our neckwear Christmas, and now haven't a single tie in the house; but just received a handsome new line; 50 cents for any tie in the house; also, a good bright tie at 25 cents. Frank H. Baack.

Elgin Shirts

Are the best $1 shirt in America and we have them in all lengths of sleeve. Don't wear a long sleeve shirt if you have a short arm or a short sleeve shirt if you have a long arm. Call for the Elgin and we can give you any length you want. Frank H. Baack.

Hat Time Again.

If you think it is hat time again don't forget that we have got the best $2 stiff hat in the city. This is our speciality and will prove to you that it is a world beater if you look at it. The newest shapes are now in. Frank H. Baack.

BUSINESS MEN WANT A NEW POST OFFICE

RESOLVE TO BACK CONGRESS-MAN COOPER'S EFFORTS.

Resolution to That Effect Passed Last Night—To Meet in the Y. M. C. A. Building—Dues Reduced to $1.00 a Year—Pledge Support to The Street Cars.

The Business Men's Association last night passed a resolution of appreciation of Congressman Cooper's efforts to get a public building for Janesville and pledging him support in that direction; accepted the invitation of the Y. M. C. A. to hold future meetings in the new building; charged the annual dues to $1.00 per year, and adopted a resolution pledging support to the street railway company in case the line was again put in operation.

Captain Vankirk, president of the association presided and presented the following letter:

JANESVILLE, WIS., DEC. 28, 1895—W. T. VANKIRK, Esq., PRESIDENT BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION—DEAR SIR:—We believe that the Business Men's Association is a public benefit and should have the hearty support of all our citizens. We also feel that no more proper place in which it could hold its meetings could be found than in our new building, which is in every sense a public institution. We therefore tender to you the free use of this building for your monthly meetings and any special ones you may see fit to call. Very respectfully yours, E. E. LOOMIS, President.

H. J. CUNNINGHAM, Secretary. The proposition was accepted with thanks and on motion of C. E. Bowles the annual dues were reduced to $1 a year from Feb. 1. Hon. Hiram Merrill then introduced the following resolution.

RESOLVED, That we, as citizens of Janesville, hereby express to the Hon. Henry A. Cooper our most cordial appreciation of the interest in our city which he has shown in the introduction of the bill and our confidence in his ability to secure its passage and our readiness to support him in his efforts to furnish our city with a suitable government building.

RESOLVED, That citizens be asked to affix their names hereto, and that copies of these resolutions with signatures attached be forwarded to Mr. Cooper.

The resolution was adopted and President Vankirk, Hon. Hiram Merrill and Ald. F. S. Winslow were appointed a committee to circulate it for signatures.

The following resolution was introduced by Capt. Pliny Norcross and was adopted.

RESOLVED, By the Business Men's Association that it is a matter of general regret that the street railway company of Janesville has ceased operating its cars; and further, that this association pledges its active support to the railway company if the cars shall be again put into active use on our streets.

THE NEWS OF THE CITY

IS FULL OF THE BURNS SPIRIT

Prof. Dow Will Speak on the Scotch Poet Friday Evening.

Prof. Dow of Madison University, who is to deliver the address on Robert Burns at the Armory Friday evening, is a most scholarly gentleman and is probably as well versed on the works and characteristics of the Scottish poet as any man in America. Some two years ago a large eastern publishing house decided to issue a revised edition of the poets works, which would appear on the hundredth anniversary of Burns' death, next July, and for this important work Prof. Dow was chosen and he has been engaged on it more or less ever since. The Caledonia Society have been fortunate in securing Prof. Dow's services on the present occasion and being a highly educated musical man also, he will interpret some of Burns' sweetest songs in a manner hitherto unknown in Janesville. Friday evening's event will be a rich musical and literary treat to all who attend.

DR. K. MENHART IS DOING WELL

Former Janesville Physician Has a Large Practice in South Africa.

Word has been received in this city to the effect that Dr. K. Menhart, who recently moved from Janesville to South Africa is doing well in his profession. The doctor is having "all kinds of excitement," including the gold and diamond as well as the war scare. There are few physicians in that country and a recent issue of a Cape Town paper, which was received at the Grand Hotel related a number of instances where people were taken to England for treatment, the majority of them being afflicted with simple maladies.

FARMER SURPRISED HIS WIFE.

New Clothes Helped Him to do it Most Effectively.

A farmer living near Nunda, purchased a new suit of clothes, and after imbibing freely of the cup that cheers, started for home. On his way thither he was taken with an idea of surprising his wife, and stopped on a bridge to put on his new suit. He took off his old duds and threw them in the stream, and reached in his wagon for his new suit and low and behold, they were not there. He surprised his wife.

To Piano Buyers:

I propose to sell you Pianos cheaper than you can buy them in Chicago. I buy direct from manufacturers, and am under less expense in business, therefore am enabled to sell at the lowest possible figure. I handle the celebrated Reed & Son's Piano that is equal in merit to any piano in the country. Mr. Reed has been a piano-maker from boyhood and in his experience has been enabled to place a high grade instrument before the public at a moderate price. The Reed Piano will speak to you in more powerful tones than anything we can say, and why should it not, experience is the greatest of all teachers.

DEATH ENDS EARTHLY WOES

Robert Julius Lynn.

"Death loves a shining mark—a signal blow"—and yet it opens the gate of fame and shuts the gate of envy. It is the liberator where freedom cannot release; the physician where medicine cannot cure, and the gentle comforter of him, whom time cannot console.

The poet, the painter, the orator, have each portrayed death as the grand destroyer, the enemy that whispers of miseries, the prince of phantoms, the king of terrors, the ghoul of shadows; and the grave has been surrounded with sepulchral gloom and the melancholy insignia of sable trophies, as if the man we loved had been summoned from the feast of life for an existence with the slimy worm of the mouldering earth in the blind cave of eternal night. On the contrary an enlightened reason and a Christian philosophy teaches us to believe that the grave is but an exit, and death a jewel of the just, that lives when all life dies.

Life is the jailor of the soul and death its deliverer. That which we call life is but a journey to death, and that which we call death, the true passport of eternal life. That which makes death formidable is within our own control and the shortest life is long enough if it leads to a better world, and the longest life too short if it leaves nothing beautiful to blossom behind it.

A week ago this day, Dr. Robert Julius Lynn passed in the early morning of his manhood from death unto eternal life. Born at Monticello, Wisconsin, thirty-two years ago last May, he grew towards manhood on his father's farm. At eighteen he began teaching to gain the means to graduate at the Monroe high school in 1887. For two years following he taught school at Dunkirk, N. Y., and then returning to Wisconsin, for two years more he taught acceptably in the town of Center in this county. At Center, in the fall of 1891, he was wedded to the partner of his joys and tears, Miss Addie Belle Crow, second daughter of Calvin S. and Louise V. Crow, well known citizens of Rock county. Their wedding bells were still ringing joyous notes when, with the world full of brightness, they departed to spend their honeymoon within the classic shades of Ann Arbor, where he entered upon the study of medicine, and, pursuing the full course of four years, graduated with distinguished honors on the 27th day of June last. So marked was his ability in pathology of certain diseases that he was often called upon as a member of the class to aid Professor Herdman in his demonstrations of nervous diseases.

The signal honor was accorded Dr. Lynn upon his graduation, of an appointment as a member of the faculty of that time-honored institution, as Demonstrator of Nervous Diseases and Electrotherapeutics.

Dr. Lynn began the practice of medicine in Fociville in September last, with much success. It is recorded that during the four months of his practice and nearly one hundred cases, he lost not a single patient, and performed several operations requiring nerve, skill and great technical knowledge, among which was a successful operation performed on the eyes of O. F. Wallihan.

During the last two years of his college life Dr. Lynn became acquainted with the fact that he was doubtless to become the victim of the deadly malady of diabetes. He fought the destroyer in vain. The hand that had soothed his fellow and with technical cunning had unloosed the bars of pain of others could not arrest the steady progress of the enemy who had entered the citadel of his own life. He surrendered to his maker on the eleventh of January, 1896. He was not only a bright scholar but a bright social mind and a bright mason, an affiliating member of the Footville Lodge F. and A. M. He had heard the far cry of the "widows' son" and oft times had extended the relieving hand—but for him there was no "ram in the thicket, no rescuing angel in the sky." The last Christmas was spent at a reunion with his wife's family at Janesville and the following New Year's with his aged mother at Monticello, where a few days later he passed on to a new life and became a pioneer to smooth death's ragged road and break the bars of terror that nature throws across our pathway and welcome home the loved ones left behind. ***

Named After Franklin.

The "State of Franklin" was born 110 years ago, but died after a life of two and a half years. The residents of what is now East Tennessee, but which formed in 1785 a part of North Carolina, whose western boundary was the Mississippi, were told by the North Carolina legislature that they could be independent if they wanted to. Almost impassable mountains separated them from the regions east, and they fancied that the people living there were regardless of their interest. So they formed a government for themselves and named their state after Ben Franklin. Then they applied to the congress of the confederation for recognition, but it was slow to act, and North Carolina took back her consent to the separation and suppressed the state of Franklin by force of arms.

An Eccentric Heart.

A man whose heart has in the past twenty months traveled from the left side of his body, is a patient in the Alameda, Cal., county infirmary, and his case is greatly interesting the physicians. The patient is Frederick Moran, 30 years old. He had no trouble of any kind with his heart, until twelve months ago, when it began to work toward the right side of his body. The physicians say his heart is now at the extreme of the right side of his body. He has suffered great pain since the trouble began, but is now almost well apparently. The superintendent of the infirmary says that this is only the third case of the kind he ever heard of.

London, Jan. 17.—It is alleged that the government of the Transvaal has documentary evidence of a wide-spread conspiracy to seize upon the government and use the wealth of the country to rehabilitate the finances of the Chartered company.

COUGHS AND COLDS.

ELY'S PINEOLA BALM is a sure remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes the inflamed membrane, soothes the cough, and renders expectoration easy.

QUADRIUM LIVES will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their case is consumption are only suffering from a chronic cough, or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh. For catarrh use Ely's Cream Balm. For a remedy use Cream Balm, 50¢ per bottle. Ely's Pineola Balm, 25¢. Sold by druggists. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1743—John Fitch, inventor of the steamboat, born in Windsor, Conn.; died 1793.
 1793—Louis XVI was guillotined; born 1754.
 Louis XVI was a grandson of Louis the Great. His death at the hands of his people was a blow to the divinity that had been about a throne. He was tried in a national convention and condemned by a vote of 387 for execution against 334 for banishment or detention. It was the policy of the king's ministers, Turgot and Necker, that precipitated the revolution against royalty. The classes arose in opposition measures which discriminated against them separately, and soon the whole of France was in a turbulent state. The king attempted to fly with his family and was arrested.
 1813—John Charles Fremont, soldier, senator and explorer, born in Savannah; died 1890.
 1821—John Cabell Breckinridge, senator, vice president and soldier, born; died in 1875.
 1824—Thomas Jonathan Jackson, "Stonewall," born in Clarksburg, W. Va.; died 1863.

JANUARY TRADE.

Among the dying superstitions of trade is one which assumes that "everything is dead as a door-nail after the holidays." The feverish excitement is over, of course; the hordes of bargain-hunters have ceased to assault the counters, but trade is far from being dead.

Prices are marked down, and this time it is an honest and genuine reduction. It is made by the most respected and upright of dealers. People who combine inexperience and skepticism may say that, if the "mark-downs" are honest, the original price of the article must have been extravagantly high. But this does not follow.

It is the custom to make an account of stock on February 1, and before that date it is desirable to clear the shelves as much as possible. Hence the merchants cut prices right and left, preferring in some cases to stand a loss rather than to keep the goods in stock.

One result of this policy is that the shrewdest advertisers buy space liberally in January, and the trade thus gained often require that extra helpers, hired originally for the holiday season only, are kept busy until after stock-taking time.

DEATH, TAXES AND ALIMONY.

The supreme court of the United States has decided that under the provision of the federal constitution which says the full weight and credit must be given in each state to the judicial proceedings in each other state, a party to a divorce can not escape the financial obligations of the decree by removing to another state than that in which the decree was granted. That is to say, a claim for alimony can be enforced against a man wherever he may be found, regardless of the differences between the divorce laws of the various states. How about the New York decision holding Dakota divorcees to be void entirely?

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The call for the state republican convention, March 18th, gives Rock county twenty-four delegates, the first assembly district having nine, the second eight and the third seven. There are to be no "snap" caucuses, as by the terms of the call, all county conventions to elect delegates to the state convention must be called on a notice of not less than four weeks; and all town or ward caucuses, as primaries to the state convention, on a notice of not less than ten days.

THE CHOICE OF DELEGATES.

Some have overlooked the fact that any congressional district can elect delegates to the republican national convention. In several districts, however, such elections have been held. State conventions select only the delegates at large, strictly speaking, though frequently the district delegates are chosen by such bodies through the expedient of indorsing nominations made by the representatives of the different districts, thus saving the trouble and expense of separate local conventions.

Madison took up a metropolitan idea Sunday. Mr. Simonds, the eloquent pastor of the Unitarian church, began a series of free Sunday night lectures in the opera house, his opening topic being "John Bright and the Commons of England." A printed syllabus was prepared for the use of the audience and there was music by a double quartette as well as congregational singing of hymns prepared especially for the meet g.

Howard W. Tilton, city editor of The Gazette in years gone by, and for twelve years manager of the Council Bluffs department of the Omaha Bee, has taken editorial charge of the Council Bluffs Daily Nonpareil. Mr. Tilton combines managerial shrewdness with editorial ability in a high degree, and the Nonpareil will be a gainer in every department, under his direction.

A chemical engine would put Janesville's fire department on a par with the best in cities of this size. In large cities the chemical has come to be regarded as essential. There were 2032 fires in Philadelphia last year, of which 506, or 25 per cent were extinguished by chemical engines.

There will be no fear of turmoil in the national republican convention. George N. Wiswell is to be assistant sergeant at arms, and his rendition of "Old Shady," will smooth out the worst wrinkles that any national convention ever caused.

People would be better satisfied with the result of the state university investigation if more of an investigation had been held.

JOHN S. SWEET IS AFTER A MAN

Wants To See the Fellow Who Imposed on Him.

The following postal card has been received at the Grand Hotel:

We want information concerning one Ed. McCaffery, about twenty-eight or thirty years of age, smooth shaven, dark hair mixed a little with gray. Will weigh about 150 pounds, has a quick, nervous walk, bends a little forward, throwing his weight slightly on his toes, quite fresh, and very familiar on short acquaintance. Can use good language, but is somewhat addicted to the use of slang. Uses the phrase "I tell you those" a great deal, in place of "I tell you that." Altogether he is quite a lively, jolly fellow. He works some towns in the interests of the "Metal Back Album Co.," of Battle Creek, Mich. Has no baggage, other than his sample, which he carries in a green felt cover. If you can give any information of such a man, please wire Hotel Straubel, Green Bay, Wis.

John S. Sweet, formerly clerk at the Grand, is the man who wants information, he now being employed at the Straubel, Green Bay. McCaffery is said to have "worked a game" on Sweet.

THE RELIABLE SHOE MEN.

IN LUXURY'S LAP HERRMANN RIDES

GREAT MAGICIAN IS NOW WITH US.

He Came on His Special Car at 9:30 O'clock This Morning and Brought All of His Fine Horses, Etc., With Him—Large Crowd Was at The Depot.

Herrmann, the great, the mysterious, and the good-natured, is now among us. He rolled into Janesville at 9:30 o'clock this morning, and a crowd was at the St. Paul depot to bid him welcome. A Gazette reporter found the great magician to be a jolly but rather an odd sort of a person. He is a firm upholder of the old adage that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. He plays from the time he starts on his tour until he gets back to New York, and then he starts all over again, only that he does not work. In his performances, spectators are naturally led to the supposition that the gross receipts are divided between the professor and his wife, with perhaps an assistant or two included; but there are others, twenty-seven of them, and all travel with him. There are, however, besides these, six horses and seven driving vehicles, a regular armory and an armorer, so say nothing of a photograph gallery and all the rest of it. This all takes three cars. Now Herrmann finds that he is obliged to leave some of his pots at home because of space, and so is having another car built. His latest venture is to build his own locomotive.

What Money Can Buy.
Herrmann's private car is a magnificent affair. It cost $44,000 to build and $8,000 was put on it afterwards. It is built under the Mann patents, but of special design. The wheels are 44 inches, whereas the standard is but 36 inches and the floor is a treble one. First comes the plank flooring, then a flooring of mineral wood, to deaden the noise, then a parquet floor, and with twelve wheels under the whole, it is almost impossible for passengers to tell when the car is moving, so steady is its carriage and all noise from the rails deadened. It is finished in quartered oak.

Horses Have a Palace Car Too.
Perhaps more interesting than this private car is the one, which is designed to carry the fanciful magician's stable. Herrmann carries six horses with him, and all six are at present in the Palace Stables. The leader of the string is Ock Robin, a winner wherever he is shown in a tandem and a magnificent piece of horse flesh. There is not a pony among them. Herrmann is very fond of his horses and it is said to be a toss up whether he takes as much pains to see after his own comfort as he does of his horses. For his six horses he carries with him a tallyho, a coupe, a Victoria, a Kensington, English tandem, an exercising cart and a Palo Alto cart. There are besides three dogs, also particular friends of the man, who loves animals and proposes to get fun out of life, even if he has to work to get it. The stable car has six stalls at the forward end for the six horses, with a door dividing them in sets of three, which is provided with a gang-way for the horses to be run over.

MADISON IS AFTER THE BIG PICNIC

CAPITAL CITY WANTS THE GATHERING AGAIN.

Offers $5,000 If She Can Have it Held There Instead of at Janesville—Residents of the Bower City Should Not Let the Capital City Get Ahead.

Madison will take the Modern Woodmen's big picnic off of Janesville's hands and guarantee to raise $5,000.

The capital city has had the picnic and knows what it means to have 30,000 people in the town for a day. The Janesville camp are anxious to have the annual gathering here but they need money.

This was the subject of discussion at a meeting of the arrangement committee held last night.

The meeting was called to order at the store of W. H. Ashcraft. The committee consists of H. G. Arnold, William Marsden, C. H. Kueck, C. Eller, George Palmer, Frank Parker, W. H. Ashcraft, Jr., and A. J. Donistion and private business relating to the big picnic was the only subject discussed.

Must Raise $1,000 or More.

The above committee will have entire charge of the affair, and will start in the work at once. The city will be called upon for many privileges, and above all it is expected that the necessary fund to pay their running expenses during the day, which will be close to a thousand dollars, will be raised. The local camp will themselves contribute $300. The main expense will be the taking care of the outside bands, which will include their dinners and supper. This means about 1500 free meals, while the hiring of the local band will be another expense. All that can be bought here at home will be looked after by the committee, who will at once commence the task of raising money.

Janesville merchants and hotel men will get substantial returns from the visit of 30,000 strangers, and the big picnic is worth having. Let all the people pull with the Woodmen. Janesville shouldn't "lay down" for Madison or any other town on earth.

MISS NELLIE SPICER SURPRISED

Very Pleasant Affair At The Home of Her Parents Last Night.

A complete surprise was the party given last evening at the Lincoln street home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Spicer, the affair being in honor of their daughter, Miss Nellie. The early part of the evening was devoted to progressive clinch, Miss Hattie Ryan and Allie Wheeler being awarded first prizes, while Miss Sarah Murphy and William Mason captured second honors. Supper was served and all pronounced the affair a decided success. The guests were:

Messrs and Mesdames—William Mason, M. J. Conroy, Margaret Ryan, Sarah Murphy, Mollie Croke, Nellie Spicer, Margaret McCue, Messrs—John Dwyer, E. J. Murphy, T. E. Lynch, Joseph Ryan, Allie Wheeler, L. SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST PROTEST.

Milton Junction People Petition Congress in Regard to a Bill.

A dispatch from Washington says: "Representative Babcock today received a petition from about forty citizens of Milton Junction in opposition to the bill now pending before the committee on the District of Columbia, providing for the observance of the Sabbath in the district. Many petitions are sent for and against the bill. It is charged that the bill proposes to determine by statute and court what is proper and what is not proper to do on a day of rest and worship made such by divine appointment. It is claimed the bill proposes class legislation on purely religious grounds, in that certain persons are exempted, providing they religiously observe Saturday, and the court must decide in what such observance consists. The petition claims that 'such a law would do grave justice to a large number of citizens who deem all days of equal religious sacredness, and also those who do not deem it a religious duty to observe either the first or the seventh day of the week as a day of rest or worship.'"

TO FINE UNION MEN IF THEY AID SCABS

FEDERATED COUNCIL ADOPTS A NEW REGULATION.

Will Cost Each Union Workman a Dollar to Spend Money With a Non-Union Establishment—New Officers Were Elected at the Meeting Held Last Night.

Janesville union men must "holler down each other's rain barrels" or pay a dollar for each "scab holler." This was the decision reached at a meeting of the Federated Trades-Council held last evening at Central Labor Hall. Besides formulating this regulation the council elected the following officers for the year:

President—John McKelue.
Vice President—Philip Ohlweiler.
Treasurer—M. H. Whitaker.
Secretary—John Curran.
Sergeant At Arms—J. M. McDonald.

The most important subject brought before the meeting was the closer banding together of the local unions for mutual benefit and rules were then drawn up and adopted. These regulations provide that all union men must patronize union men. If a union shoemaker smokes a non-union cigar, he will be fined $1 by the council, etc. and the fine will be the same for each offense. The regulation includes all the unions; cigar-makers, barbers, shoemakers, tailors, etc. and it is proposed to enforce it vigorously.

Y. M. C. A. DISTRICT CONVENTION.

It Will Be Held at Stoughton on January 24 to 26.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Wisconsin have set the date for the annual convention of the Janesville district to take place at Stoughton, January 24 to 26. Delegates will attend from Rock, Green, La Fayette, Grant, Iowa, Dane, Sauk, Richland and Crawford counties. Among those from this city who are on the programme are J. M. Whitehead, H. J. Cunningham, J. C. Kline, A. Crawford and S. M. Smith.

TWO ELEPHANTS FIGHT AT SEA.

Without Any Regard for Rules of the Ring.

Two elephants of a consignment of seven, which arrived here on the Hamburg-American liner Persia, fought at sea on the night of Nov. 21, and but for their keepers might have killed each other, says the New York Herald. The elephants left Hamburg on Nov. 18, in charge of William Newman, known in the show business as "Elephant Bill," and another keeper.

Pilot, who has tusks, and Albert, who has no tusks, were the only males of the lot. They are nearly twelve years old and about five and a half feet high. They were placed in opposite corners of a box stall. On the fourth night, during the rolling of the ship, Pilot and Albert succeeded in breaking their chains, and they went at each other with such force that Newman thought their skulls would surely be fractured.

The brutes attempted to rise on their hind legs and paw each other. Then they lashed each other ferociously with their trunks. They would back off and butt each other with such force that the shock stunned them for a moment. Pilot made several efforts to puncture Albert with his tusks, but was not successful. Meanwhile the other five elephants were grunting and trumpeting, so that the noise could be heard all over the ship. Newman and his assistant belabored the brutes with clubs, but the clubs didn't seem to have the slightest effect on the craniums of the elephants. Two pitchforks were procured. About half a dozen good "digs" with the forks took all the fight out of the two animals and they allowed themselves to be chained in their corners again.

A Woodman's Queer Craft.

Hermit Cusack of Moosehead might have been hanged as a sorcerer in the benighted old days. He thinks nothing of crossing the Piscataquis river standing on a 35-foot binding pole. Recently as the steamer from Kineo plowed down through the heavy sea the people on board were astounded by the sight of a man in midlake standing breast high in the heaving waters, with which he was battling in seeming pursuit of a small dog that sat in full view above the surface a few feet ahead of him. The steamer, changing her course, slowed down to pick up John Cusack, who was making the fourth mile of a voyage with an old tree root as his craft and his dog as passenger. He stood upon the larger end of the root, thereby lifting the other end above the water, and upon this upraised tip the dog found a safe if not quite dry footing. The sight of Uncle John and his dog making similar trips is quite frequently reported. —Lewiston Journal.

Coaching the Witness.

"My good woman," said the learned judge, "you must give an answer in the fewest possible words of which you are capable to the plain and simple question whether you were crossing the street with the baby on your arms and the omnibus was coming down on the opposite side and the cab on the left and the brougham was trying to pass the omnibus, you saw the plaintiff between the brougham and the cab, or whether and when you saw him at all, and whether or not near the brougham, and which of them, respectively, or how it was."

A NEW STIMULANT.

Non - Intoxicating, Without Reaction.

You often find a stimulant to keep yourself going, to prevent you getting sick. But a stimulant that makes you feel worse afterwards is worse than useless.

Following nature is the best way. A pure, malted, unfermented beverage, like Malted-Koffee-Kola, is the only safe, certain and natural stimulant to take.

Malted-Koffee-Kola is a Shaker non-intoxicating stimulant, which cures nervousness, headache, neuralgia, indigestion, loss of appetite, low spirits, and the results of mental overwork and worry.

It is a wonderful builder for old people and convalescent.

Stimulants have been used in all ages. They are a necessity. But only food stimulants can give real strength without weakness.

Malted-Koffee-Kola is a food stimulant. It makes strength and keeps it. It creates lasting energy. It clears the brain and braces the body.

It is better than medicine; it is food. It is better than food; it is food stimulant.

Malted-Koffee-Kola is made of malted Caffeine and malted Kola, and contains all the virtues of these plants as a perfectly harmless and health-giving stimulant.

TERRORS OF POLAR NIGHT.

Those Who Have Not Experienced It Cannot Appreciate the Horror.

Constantin Nossloff, reporting his scientific researches in Nova Zembla, furnishes an interesting description of his sensations and experiences during the long Arctic night which began in November and ended January 20. September was pretty comfortable, he says. Then suddenly snow covered the mountains. The Samoyedes, his only companions, put on their winter clothing, the fishing boats set sail for Archangel, the ground froze, the sun lost its warmth and heavy snows fell. Winter had come in earnest. On the day when the sun showed itself for the last time all hands went out of doors to bid it farewell. It remained in sight for half an hour only. For a few days longer there was a morning twilight. Then this faded and gave place to black night. The stars shone the whole twenty-four hours. The huts of the colony were buried under the snow, of which thick whirlwinds filled the air. The wind shook the huts to their foundations. Sometimes for days together the inmates of different huts could hold no communication with each other, though the huts were side by side. If anyone went out he was seized by the wind and had to be dragged back by means of ropes. In this darkness and desolation the aurora borealis did much to entertain and cheer them. It lasted sometimes for five days in succession, with splendors of color that Mr. Nossloff tries in vain to describe. To enjoy the spectacle he used to remain for hours in a hole in the snow, sheltered from the wind.

"I have never seen anything more terrible than a tempest during the polar night," says Mr. Nossloff. "Man feels himself overwhelmed in immensity." When there came a lull in the storm the men ventured out to breathe the air and purge their lungs of the exhalations of the smoking lamps fed with seal oil. Twilight appeared again in the middle of January, and on the 20th the sun rose above the horizon, while the members of the little colony stood in line facing it and fired a salute. No one had died or been seriously ill, but all had the look of corpses and were as feeble as convalescents after a long sickness. Health returned with the appearance of the sun.

TOBACCO IS HEALTHFUL.

Eminent Authority Declares That Its Use Is Beneficial.

Patients and convalescents will take comfort in the answer given by Dr. Jankau to the question, "May I Smoke, Doctor?" an answer quoted with approval by the Lancet. Dr. Jankau says that as a general rule there is no need to forbid the use of tobacco in surgical cases, with the exception of those involving the eyes, the abdomen and the bladder, and that most of the affections where the use of tobacco is injurious are just those which cause the patient to dislike it; in fact, in these, the disinclination to smoke is one of the first signs that a man is unwell. With certain troubles, such as those of the throat and pharynx, or cases of peritonitis, tobacco should not be used, but the doctor says that it is by no means certain that it has anything to do with the cancer of the lips or tongue. He would allow to habitual smokers two or three mild cigars even in cases of organic affections of the heart, but would exercise great caution in nervous affections of that organ and with nervous dyspepsia, where the use of cigarettes may lead to very serious consequences.

In pulmonary affections he would encourage smoking, experiments having taught us "the prophylactic and even bactericidal action of tobacco on the micro-organisms of the mouth and those of carbuncle, of typhoid fever and of pneumonia, and on the bacilli of tuberculosis." Moreover, tobacco smoke disinfects the mouth, soothes the genital nerves and acts favorably on the central nervous system by its slightly narcotic influence. Above all it distracts the patient's thoughts from himself and his illness, a matter of great importance in the treatment of consumption. He would not forbid tobacco even where there were slight hemorrhages. All smoking by invalids should of course be done under the direction of the physician.

Swiss Hotels.

The Swiss hotel-keepers are admittedly the best in Europe, and some of their secrets are to be available to the hotel-keeping world at large, as they propose to open a technical school for inspection in the art of their calling. The course includes French and German, with particular reference to technical correspondence, writing and bookkeeping, geography, and especially traveling arrangements and communication between different countries; the management of the cellar and kitchen; the choice and purchase of provisions and wines; the art of waiting, and, finally, manners and deportment.

Signaling for Cabs in London.

One of the latest inventions in connection with the electric light is a silent cab call. Several clubs and hotels in London have already been supplied with this useful commodity. Two lamps are suspended outside the building, one red and the other green, and by pressing a knob in the entrance hall one or the other of the lamps can be lit at will. The red light calls a four-wheeler and the green a hansom.

Where to Grow Old.

Southern Oregon's climate is generally admitted to be conducive to longevity, and this was strongly substantiated the other day when a trio of Ashland men, the youngest sixty-eight years of age, devoted a little spare time to calculating the number of men, in Ashland alone, of that age and over. They easily counted up a full 100.

"SCORNEO BY HIS WIFE."

On the Return of a Confederate Deserter His Family Repudiates Him.

William Powell, a confederate soldier who was mourned as dead, turned up at Atlanta, Ga., expecting a welcome from his family, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. His wife and children refused, however, to recognize him. He is now 68 years old. Thirty-five years ago Powell enlisted in an Atlanta battery of artillery in the confederate service. Believing him to have been killed in one of the last skirmishes of the war, his family mourned him as dead, and for several years his supposed widow has been drawing a pension from the state. Nothing was known to the contrary until it was announced that Powell had put in an appearance at the home of his family. His wife refused to receive him, his son turned his back on him and told the old man to go back to the mountains of east Tennessee, where he had been hiding the disgrace of desertion. The first knowledge which anybody had of Powell's presence in the city was when Capt. Talley, one of Atlanta's most prominent citizens, found a man hanging about the Neck and begging recognition. "I am Doc Powell," he exclaimed, but the captain would not believe it. Then the man explained how, in a skirmish between Knoxville and Bristol, he had slipped away from the army and gone into the mountains of Tennessee. He was afraid to come back because he had played the part of a coward. But as he grew older the desire to once more see his family overcame his fears and he came to Atlanta. His wife told him he had better go back to Tennessee. His son indorsed the view of the mother. The pension money which she has been receiving from the state was only $60 a year, but neither the mother nor son thought he was worth that much, and now that he has come back to make them lose that money his welcome is a warm one in a way he had not anticipated.

The Correspondent Got In.

A special correspondent found himself shut out of a London newspaper office in Fleet street, and unable to make himself heard by anyone within. His errand would not wait till morning. What should he do? He went to the central telegraph station and telegraphed to a newspaper in Ireland, asking the clerk there to telegraph to the clerk in Fleet street to come downstairs and let him—the correspondent—in.

Vermont Wants Game.

The Vermont state game commission has been systematically stocking the fields and forests of that state with various species of game birds from all sections of the country. Mongolian pheasants have recently been introduced there, and a consignment of Virginia quail and sharp tail grouse is now on its way to Vermont.

Apiary in Prison.

An Arizona prison has an extensive apiary, which is under the charge of the inmates. A single hive is said to have produced 200 pounds of honey last year, and it is expected that the industry will prove exceedingly profitable.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Once Believed to Be the Only Cure for Piles and Rectal Diseases.

A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.

Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles for years, and after trying the many lotions, salves, ointments and so called cures without cure or relief, give up the hope of a final cure, rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary, since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure; a remedy which is approved by the medical profession, as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure (not merely relief) in any form of Piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of marvelous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate.

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from Piles for forty years and from Itching Piles for twenty years, and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure has effectually cured me.

Dr. J. W. Megan, Leonardville, Kan., writes: I have used a box of Pyramid Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I had used in the past twenty-two years.

James Jonerson, Dubuque, Iowa, says: I suffered from Piles for six years; have just used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am a well man.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkly, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

The Pyramid Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cts. and $1.00 per package. A book on cause and cure of Piles will be sent by mail, by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.
